Ok thank you. I will call her again tomorrow. I didn't realize she had no idea about the investigation so I'm sure she was a little shocked when I called her.

Stacy; FYI, I did talk to Ann Marie a little while back and explained the fact that this was a criminal not OPS investigation. I told her it was her opportunity to get her side of the story out, and that she should just tell you what she had told me. It seemed to me like she would talk to you. She asked if she needed a criminal attorney and I told her I couldn't advise her on that.
